This year's pep assembly spirit was set off by the seniors. The seniors won every scalp. Not to be ignored, the freshmen surprised everyone this year and received second in the Scalp competition at the annual senior pep assembly. The cheerleaders did an excellent job of getting most of the students rowdy. The most memorable spirit skit was the "Thriller" skit done by the wrestling team and cheerleaders with John Barnett as Michael Jackson and narration by Coach Bording.

PEP ASSEMBLIES SPARK

K. Dyer performs her last war dance K. Bowling twirls to the delight of the crowd. Senior cheerleaders show their gleaming personalities. R. Mongaraz and M. Brophy-camera happy. Busted D. Hickman likes what he sees. Stebbinettes entertain student body. J. "Michael J." Barnett does "Thriller"

The student senate once again hosted its annual Homecoming Dance on Oct. 15, 1983 from 8:00 to 11:00 in the cafeteria. The week sparked a lot of spirit with Technicolor Day and Superhero Twin Day leading up to the pep assembly. Seniors dominated, winning the notorious Scalp once again.

These are the Best of Times

At the game the tension mounted, then the moment came when Tracy Thompson was announced Homecoming Queen. She was escorted by Charles Stankus. CACTUS COME

The 1983 Homecoming Dance was an absolute success. A total of 210 couples attended; this was more than any other year. A special acknowledgement goes to the Student Senate. The decorations fit perfectly the theme of "The World of Animation." The Pink Panther joined Garfield and the Smurfs on the cafeteria walls, while Chuck Allen Productions furnished the musical accompaniment to a magical night. Queen Tracy Thompson reigned for the evening while her court joined in the celebration.

Valentines DANCE....

The Valentine Dance was an excellent opportunity to shake the mid-winter blahs and dance the circulation back into those frozen feet. Couples cuddled for warmth as the music played "All Night Long."

84 ATHLETES RECOGNIZED !!

All the drill team members and fine musicians as well as special parents and instructors who attended the music awards ceremony received honors for participation. First year students and band managers received certificates, while second year students received their varsity letters.

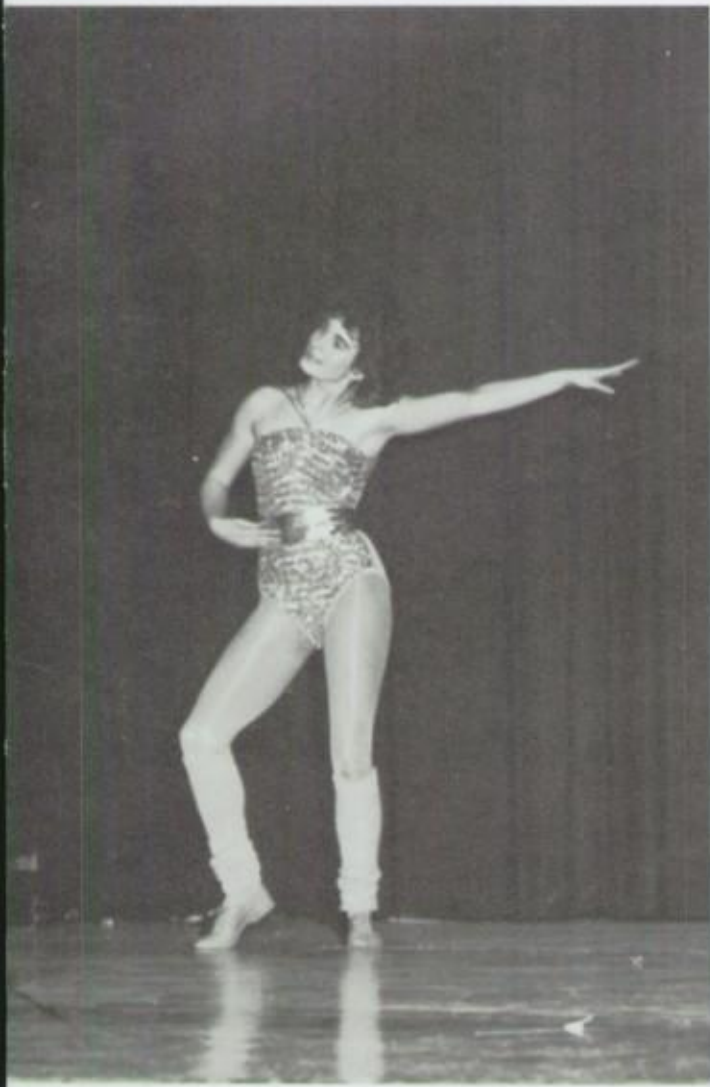

Musical Talents Awarded

After suffering through auditions several brave acts performed at Stebbins' first talent show in hope of earning fame and fortune. Several dance, instrumental and vocal acts entertained an electrified audience for a $25 award in each category. The "Rainbow of Stars" could well become an Indian tradition.

INDIAN TALENT SHINES

The 1983-84 Drama Club presented two plays this year. "A Murder is Announced" was presented this fall. The play was areal spine tingler with a touch of the absurd. Perhaps the most unusual play ever presented at Stebbins was the spring performance of M.A.S.H., the well known play, movie and TV series. A lot of hard work and time was committed to this well-staged play. There were over 40 parts in the whole consisting of ten male and fifteen female speaking parts. the actors, actresses and crews should be highly commended for a job well done.

TAKES DIVE

The Varsity "S" game earned approximately $300 in scholarship money for athletics this year. This success is attributed to the good attendance and hot competition. Unfortunately, the faculty "Senior Citizens" proved too talented for the athletes who lost the contest 43-36 despite assistance from the crowd and gorgeous cheerleaders.

The class of 1984 is the first class to recognize seniors in a special award assembly. Students were honored for achievements in athletics, scholarship, art, music, and other special awards. The Smoke Signal also honored the "Senior Favorites"

Honors went to J. Martinovitch, G. Mathewson, B. Murphy, R. Lyon, D. Ling, V. King, J. Cannon M. Culp, J. McNary, T. Strasters, R. DeCamp, D. Kendall, D. Kropp, and M. Engel.

Season ends in the "Rough"

This year's golf team lacked experience, but they made up for it twofold with desire and determination. The team consisted of 4 freshmen, 2 sophomores, 2 juniors, and 2 seniors. They were the youngest team in the W.O.L. this year, but 8 players are returning for next year's team, and the future looks bright. Craig Drosdak, who shot this year's record 36, and Eric Edmundson led the team. The highlight of the year was a victory over Carroll. We congratulate our golfers on a fine effort this year, and we wish them success next season.

Girls Tennis is fast becoming an important girls' sport at Stebbins. The team's efforts were excellent considering the skimpy turn out. Although the season only produced an 5-12 overall record, Coach Tim Eviston could point to several encouraging signs for the future.

Stebbins' biggest win was against Patterson, 5-0. Their biggest upset was against Wayne 4 to 1. The hardest match for Stebbins was when they went into three consecutive tie-breakers, losing to Xenia.

Senior, Debbie Bergman led the team this year with her leadership and key victories. Freshman, Tracy Jackson and Sophomore, Kathy Holder were a refreshing surprise to Coach Eviston. They showed good potential and should be upcoming dominant players in the W.O.L.

Stebbins swim

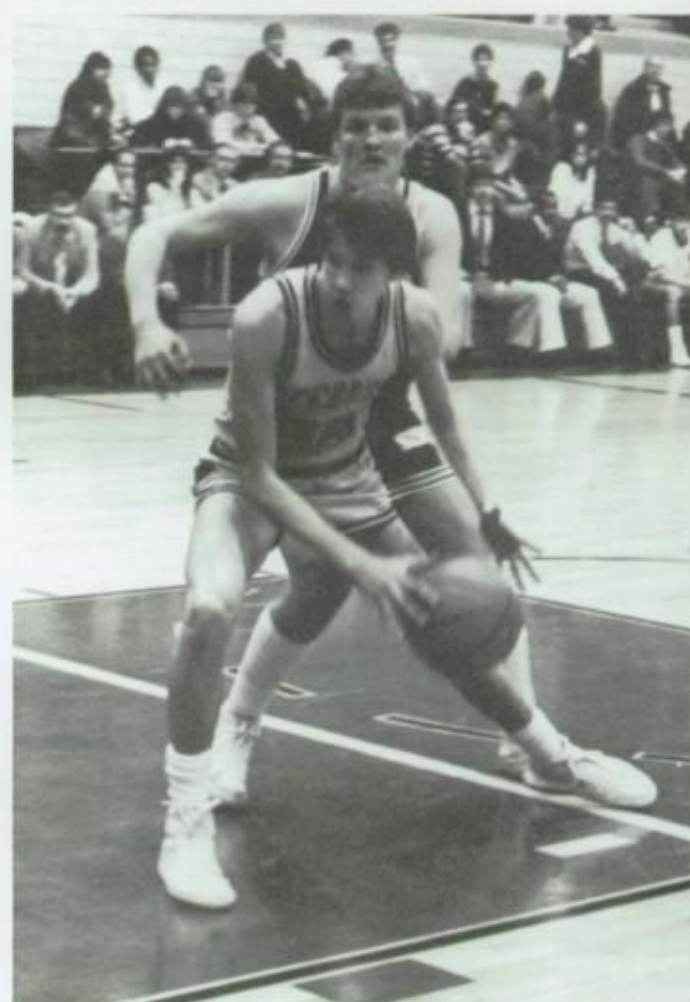

Stebbins swim team had a good season considering the small number of participants. They swam in three meets and did well against their opponents. Sue Waker and Annalisa Gerspacher placed first and second respectively in the free-style event, outswimming three males from Carroll. Also, freshman Pat Espy broke the 200 meter record set by Phil Stahl. Overall, the swim team made a great comeback this year.

John Sopczak received the honor of being picked as a 2nd Team All Area Wrestler. Also receiving individual honor was Brent White who was chosen for 1st Team All Area. All in all, the Wrestling team deserves respect from all Ind-

Season!

GIRLS BASKETBALL

WITH A 5-

The 1983 girl's basketball team topped the charts and became district champs. This year, however, could be looked upon as more of a "building" year- a year in which the players learned more, strengthened themselves and their skills and worked overall toward a strong varsity for 1985. Two players worked extremely hard, Senior Debbie Bergman and Junior Kris Johnson. In addition to making third team in the WOL, Debbie received the MVP Award while Kris Johnson received the Coaches Award for her excellent efforts.

FALLS SHORT...

17 RECORD

TRACK STARS PERFORM

The 1984 Stebbins track team showed strength in a number of throwing and running events this year. One of the many bright spots was Cathy Thomas' performance in the 100 yd. dash. The coaches are hoping for a more experienced team to improve the records next year.

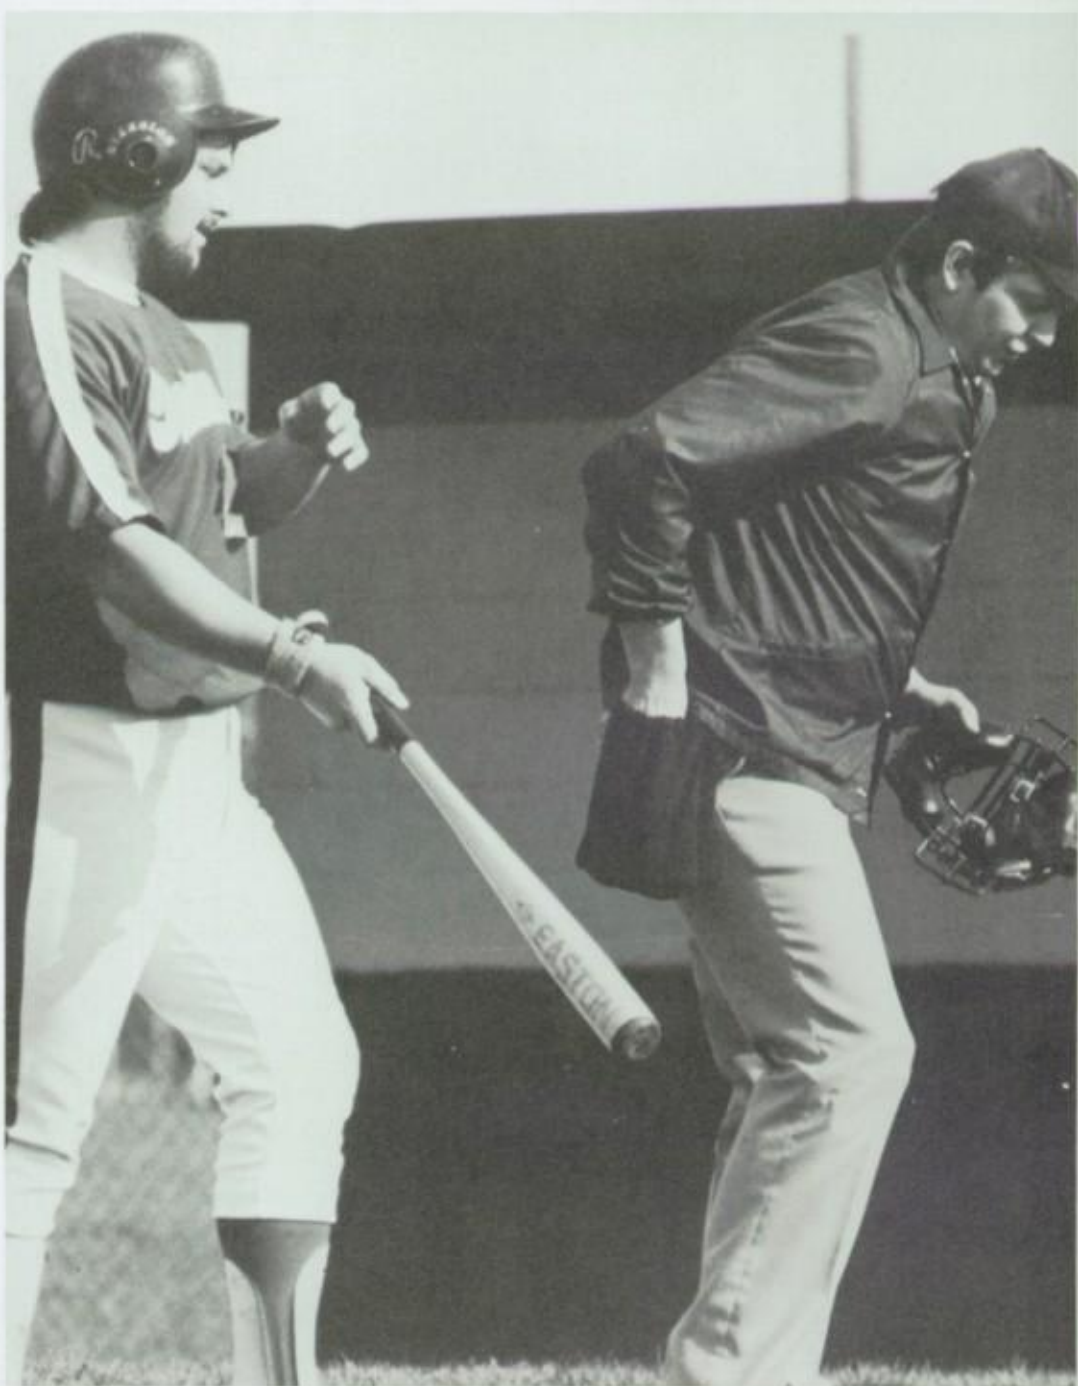

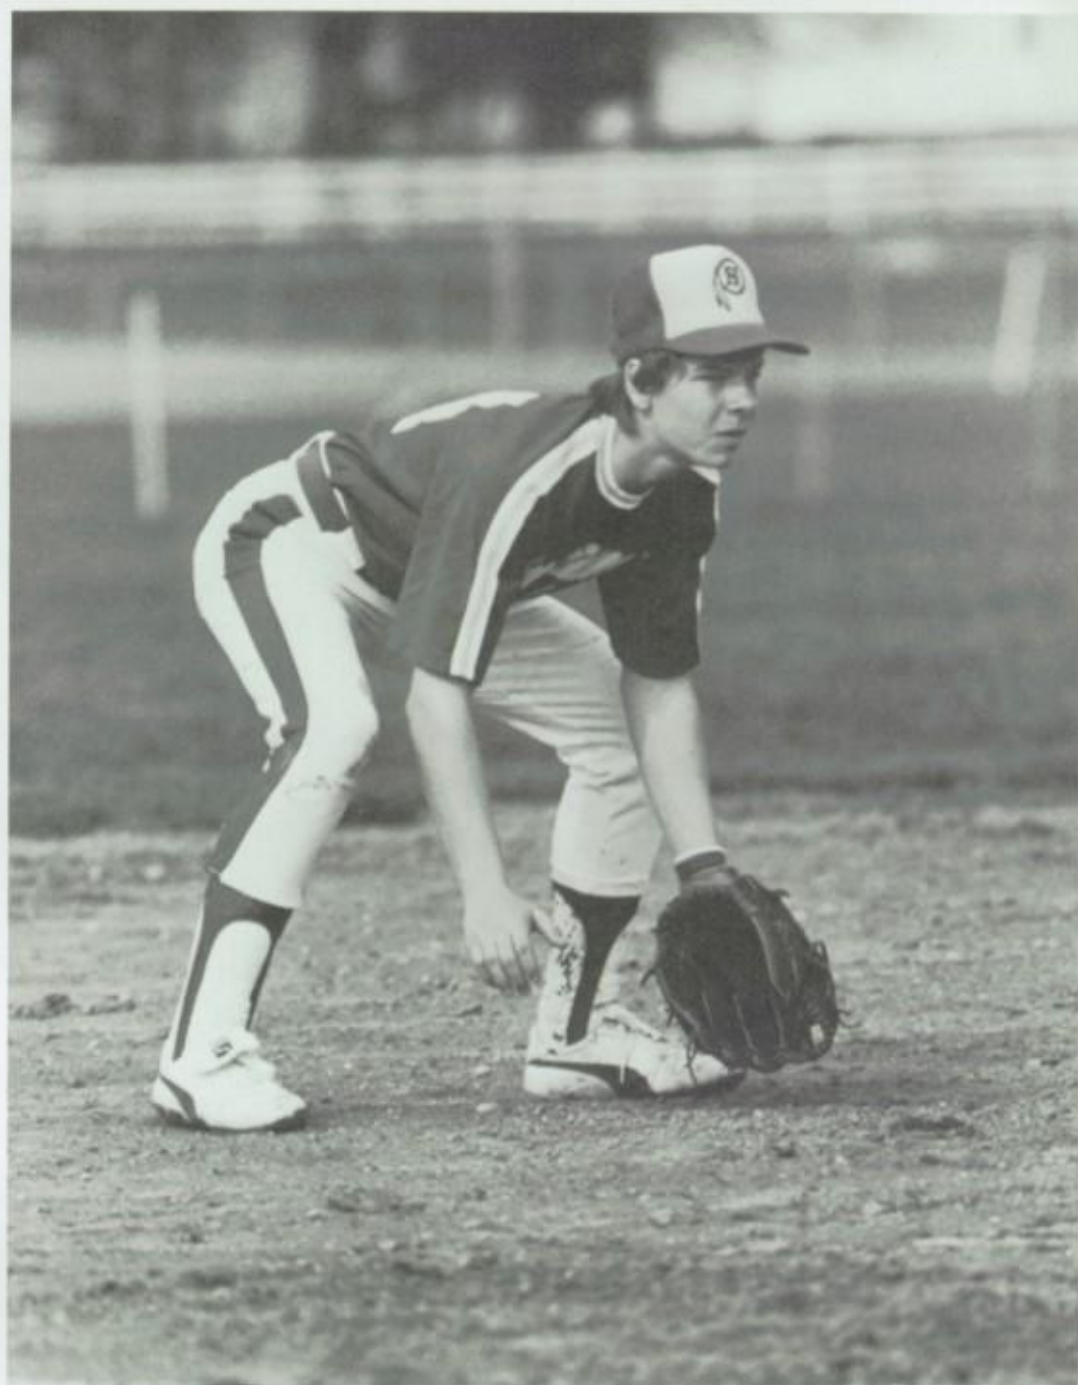

Baseball team

Although the varsity baseball team had a rough season finishing 9-14 over-all, many players contributed surprising statistics to brighten the future. The strong senior pitching staff, J. Wickersham, M. Bryant, and W. Watts turned in many fine performances with help from relievers Jeff Wickersham and B. Dunham, as well as Sophomore B. Spears. Offensively, R. Rasch hit .359, K. Arbuckle hit .400, W. Watts hit .338, and B. Spears hit .300 with the team high 18 RBI's.

raise spirit

The cheerleaders started their year by attending the ASCC Cheerleading Camp at the University of Cincinnati. They worked especially hard this year at raising school spirit at games and pep assemblies. The cheerleading squads raise funds for their uniforms and other needs by holding bake sales and selling buttons and cushions.

Marching Band

This year marching band sported new uniforms as a result of a successful cheese and sausage sale. The band had the opportunity to march in the Oktoberfest parade this year. A few of the new tunes adopted by the Indian "Pride of the Tribe" were: "A World of Animation" for the homecoming show, and hit songs such as "Africa", "We've Got Tonight", and "Georgia on my Mind."

This year the girls experimented by using flags in jazzier routines. they moved around to the beat of the music and used flags to accent the fast rhythm of the songs. A couple of the hits they used in their routines were Flashdance, Beat It, and Billie Jean.

Tops in "Pops"

Putting together the 1984 Batawat was, as always, a challenge. The theme of using popular music hits seemed to reflect the mood of the multitalented and colorful student body. New changes this year are the addition of a full page senior class photo and the addition of full color to the senior album section.

Student Senate was busy once again in the 1983-84 school year. The senators started their schedule by sponsoring the annual Homecoming Dance. Not long afterwards Senate held the Spirit Chain Competition with Wayne. Like the year before, Stebbins came out on top with more links than ever. Our Student Senate was responsible for many fund raisers as well. One of these was the Christmas Fund. This year's grand total was $1987.25. The money was used to buy clothes and toys for needy children in the Mad River Twp. area. With all these major accomplishments, maybe our Senate should be called "Super Senate."

STUDENT SENATE OFFICERS:

VARSITY "S" CLUB

The 1984 basketbrawl game between Varsity S and the faculty was once again a teacher victory. The final score was Varsity S 36 and faculty senior citizens 43. But, our Varsity S was the victor in another competition. They raised a considerable amount of money for the athletic scholarship fund.

ROUND IV

Round IV started its second season with a comical contest in song between the men and the women with a piece entitled, "Anything You Can Do, I Can Do Better" featuring Pam Molden and Bill Dunham, Diana Kropp, Tony Hull and Kelly Carl as soloists.

The show choir also performed "Starmaker", "Save the Bones for Henry Jones", and a lighthearted piece entitled "Black Water."

Social Studies

83 - 84

One of the unusual aspects of Government class in 1984 is helping to get all of the seniors registered to vote. After all, it is the presidential election year. Also, the Social Studies department participated in the American Legion Citizenship Testing Program. Stebbins had two senior winners- Julie Indalecio and Michael Tetmeyer. And the two junior winners were Roger Schaub and Melissa Bickel.

... SENIOR MEMORIES

J. Foister and K. Carl making the best of lunch time. Another loss for the Indians. D. Speelman senses a defeat. A proud V. King receives applause. Mascot K. Dyer stirs spirit at assembly. A hungry L. Williamson has no manners.

The Junior Class of 1985 is small but mighty. The juniors exceeded all the others at Christmas by contributing the most money to the Christmas Fund. Preparing for the prom has occupied the time of Mike McClure, Tana Judy, Scott Stumpf and Cheri Fecher as well as a number of dedicated juniors. The outlook for our senior year will show that we will be the best senior class ever.

Freshmen

The students of the freshman class have spent all year adjusting to our new school. We seem to be progressing really well. Although we may have come in last in spirit points with 24, we beat the sophomores and juniors in the last Scalp and finished second in the mural competition during Spirit Week. We also came in first in the skits and last in the bed race, but we're just getting warmed up. Watch out juniors and seniors of next year because we're coming through!

Freshman Attendant Nora Deis escorted by Senator Jeff Indalecio, Tara Osier escorted by President Mike Burita, and Gina Leonard escorted by Carlton Williams. President Mike Burita, Vice President Nia Thomas, Treasurer Gina Leonard, and Secretary Whitney Hall. Pam Aipia and Tara Osier pose for a togetherness shot. Freshmen have the spirit. Uh-Oh! I'm Caught!- says Tim Runte.

Pam Aipia and Yador Harrell both tried their hardest to make the highest team possible. In this case, it was VARSITY. The day of the cuts, they had made it. Yador made Varsity football and Pam made both Varsity volleyball and basketball. Pam is the only freshman to ever make both Varsity volleyball and basketball and Yador is the only freshman to ever make Varsity football. Both of them knew of the tough competition, but that didn't cut down on their determination at all. We freshmen are really proud to say that they are a part of our freshman class. Congratulations on a job well done!!!

Little "Love" Bird and Too Sweet are awesomely bad. The "Puerto Rican Playboy" shows he's sophisticated. Allen Stoner seems to be saying "Gag me with a finger." Kim Bird and Ronna Farmer are really zapped by science. Tim Erwin seems to have desires to be our mascot. "That's right, Uh-huh I'm bad." says Carlton Williams.

Three and four years can be a long time sometimes--for almost anything. But when spent working, playing, and learning with a group of interesting (and somewhat strange) people, those years can go by very fast.

We would like to take this space to thank Mr. Painter for all the time that he put into this Yearbook and for all the help that he gave us personally. His hard work and understanding should not go unrecognized. Thank you again Sir Painter, the Yearbook won't be the same without you!

Many emotions are felt when compiling the Yearbook from dedication to getting the job done even when everything seems to be falling apart, frustrations when things can not be done and relief when your section is finished. But the most immense feeling is personal satisfaction in what you have created.

To those who have made the creation possible, we thank you.
